President-elect Brian Renfroe

The election was conducted by mail ballot and administered by an independent party, following the requirements of the NALC Constitution and the regulations of the U.S. Department of Labor and subject to oversight by the NALC National Election Committee.

Official election instructions were included with all ballots mailed to eligible NALC members.

To be eligible to vote, a person was required to have been a regular member of the NALC and in good standing as of June 1, 2022.

Preparation and mailing of ballots began on Tuesday, Sept. 20. Returned ballots were picked up by the Election Committee at 5 p.m. Eastern time on Friday, Oct. 21. Counting of ballots began the following day.

Candidates for vice president, assistant secretary-treasurer, director of city delivery, director of safety and health, and 13 of the 15 national business agent (NBA) positions were unopposed and elected by consent at the Chicago convention. The installation of NALC's 28 elected national officers will take place in Washington, DC, on Saturday, Dec. 17.
