

GROW RISE TOGETHER

The Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF) is NALC's political action committee (PAC) that powers our voice and influence on Capitol Hill. Congress initiates policies that affect our collective-bargaining rights, health care and retirement benefits, and the operations of the Postal Service, so federal elected officials deeply matter. Letter carriers need a voice when lawmakers make decisions regarding our jobs and retirements. One of our main tools to achieve this is LCPF, which relies solely on voluntary donations from NALC members and their families.

"Thanks to our generous LCPF contributors, NALC has a strong and respected voice on Capitol Hill," NALC President Brian L. Renfroe said. "These funds, and the strategic ways we use them, have been key to our recent unprecedented legislative successes. Bipartisanship has always guided LCPF, and as we continue to grow our power through the PAC in the coming year, it will remain central."

LCPF MAKES OUR SUCCESS

The last few congresses have been historic for letter carriers. In the 117th Congress, after a 12-year battle, the Postal Service Reform Act was signed into law. This law ended the pre-funding requirement for retiree health care, saving the Postal Service billions of dollars annually, and codified six-day mail and package delivery into law. While this victory might be the most familiar to letter carriers, it is only one of many in recent years.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, USPS received a $10 billion loan, which was later converted to a grant, to keep operations running as usual in a time of great uncertainty. The Inflation Reduction Act included $3 billion to modernize the Postal Service's vehicle fleet. Additionally, we made a major step forward for our veteran members with the enactment of the Sergeant First Class Heath Robinson Honoring our Promise to Address Comprehensive Toxics (PACT) Act in 2022, which helps veterans who may have been exposed to toxic substances during their military services.

Most recently, at the end of the 118th Congress, NALC celebrated another historic win. After 40 years of injustice, the Social Security Fairness Act was signed into law. This law repealed the Windfall Elimination Provision (WEP) and the Government Pension Offset (GPO), parts of Social Security law that had unfairly reduced, or even eliminated, Social Security benefits for certain Civil Service Retirement System retirees, including letter carriers. Under the new law, all retired letter carriers now receive their fully earned Social Security benefits.

Bipartisanship was key to finally repealing the WEP and GPO. In the House, 327 members voted for the bill, and 76 senators supported the final vote in the upper chamber. In deeply partisan times, these vote counts are uncommon. This victory would have been impossible if only one party supported it.

We use LCPF to support those who align with our values and goals. Regardless of political affiliation, we are committed to backing individuals who can help us achieve our objectives.

NALC is known to have one of the most bipartisan PACs in the labor movement. We proudly wear this badge of honor because, as we have seen over and over, success does not come from one side or the other. Bipartisanship is top of mind in every single one of our political efforts, and we will continue to use LCPF as a tool to establish and strengthen relationships with legislators on both sides of the aisle.

LOOKING AHEAD

Even with our recent legislative successes in the rearview mirror, our work is far from over. NALC still has a robust legislative agenda focused on improving the working lives and retirements of letter carriers, and new challenges are certain to arise. As we have seen in recent years, a strong LCPF is key to being prepared and ensuring more victories.

A top priority is the Protect Our Letter Carriers Act, which is essential to deterring the extreme uptick of robberies and violent assaults targeting letter carriers on the job. This federal solution is the next step to preventing these crimes from happening and keeping letter carriers safe.

Secondly, the Federal Retirement Fairness Act is needed to ensure timely retirements for all letter carriers. The bill would allow certain federal and postal employees, including casuals, transitional employees and city carrier assistants, to make catch-up retirement contributions for time spent as non-career employees, making this time creditable toward their retirement.

Another key priority involves the Postal Service investing its three retirement funds. Currently, the agency's three retirement funds, which include billions of dollars, are held in low-yield Treasury bonds, causing the agency to lose out on potential billions of dollars in annual returns. A simple directive from Congress could fix this by permitting the agency to invest the funds more responsibly and advantageously.

These priorities are coupled with our strong defenses that will have to go back up. In recent months, anti-Postal Service and anti-labor agendas have reemerged.

As this magazine was going to print, a resolution calling to keep the Postal Service an independent federal agency that is not subject to privatization was set to be introduced. In 2019, when threats and privatization talks were at their height, this House and Senate resolution reached bipartisan majorities, with 267 co-sponsors in the House and 54 in the Senate. A powerful LCPF is critical to building and maintaining this strong defense.

Ill-guided privatization ideas will not be our only concern in the 119th Congress. We anticipate proposals that we have seen before—like cutting federal employees' benefits to reduce the nation's deficit. These misguided ideas are not unfamiliar, but we will need to engage in the fight as strongly as ever.

Budget hawks have previously gone after the Federal Employee Retirement System (FERS). While some are after reductions, others have proposed ending FERS for new retirees, taking away future annuities. Members of Congress must understand that when they try to balance the budget, federal employees and their benefits and retirements are completely off-limits. Any proposed cuts are anti-worker and a non-starter.

A strong LCPF is our best defense against whatever new or backward ideas come up regarding the Postal Service or federal employees. While we keep building up our defenses, we will continue to seek out any opportunities to advance policies that will benefit letter carriers and the network. Our recent successes did not come from one party or another. They happened with various makeups in Washington—different administrations and different parties controlling Congress at different times. LCPF is what allows us to keep strong alliances on both sides of the aisle, and this will be as important as ever in the years ahead.

HOW LCPF WORKS

Recent years have proven that a strong LCPF delivers results. But exactly how does it function, and what is its role in action?

LCPF is a voluntary PAC that takes donations only from letter carriers and their family members. Campaign fundraising is heavily regulated by federal law, so union dues cannot be used for political campaign contributions.

First, LCPF directly supports candidates' campaigns by providing the resources they need to communicate with voters. It takes a good deal of money for a candidate to run a successful campaign for office—modern campaign techniques for reaching voters can cost a campaign millions of dollars, and the 2024 elections were on track to be the most expensive ever. Most candidates rely on their allies for help. LCPF ensures that our friends running for office get the support they need. If they didn't get our support, the forces in Congress who want to take away everything we've earned—our health care, our pensions, our collective-bargaining rights—would likely prevail because their allies, primarily corporations and wealthy individuals, have deep pockets. With razor-thin margins and widening divisions in Congress, we must work for every inch of ground.

Second, LCPF devotes resources to get-out-the-vote efforts. This vital effort involves direct member engagement through coordinated work with our brothers and sisters in the labor movement. As part of these efforts, letter carriers reach out to labor voters to urge them to vote for pro-worker candidates and to help them with needs such as registering to vote, locating their precincts or voting by mail.

Third, the political fund supports communications, education and regular outreach throughout the election cycle to our members, so they are well informed about voter registration, early voting, absentee voting and voting by mail, candidates, issues and state policies. Led by five legislative and political organizers at the regional level and hundreds of letter carrier congressional liaisons who monitor individual members of Congress and educate them—with the backing of all NALC members who participate in our grassroots efforts—the outreach program gets results because LCPF sets the stage.

"With so much at stake, NALC's legislative efforts are one of the most impactful parts of our union's work," NALC President Renfroe said. "The best and easiest way you can contribute to this effort is with a contribution to LCPF."

Currently, only 12 percent of members contribute to LCPF. For the last few years, this percentage has been stagnant.

"There is massive room for LCPF growth," Renfroe said. "And when LCPF grows, so does our influence in Washington and our impact for letter carriers."

While signing up for LCPF is one of the best investments you can make in

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

NALC is fortunate that 93 percent of letter carriers choose to join our union. We have a history of successful organizing because our 290,000 active and retired members know our union delivers results that improve our jobs.

Many external factors affect our jobs as letter carriers, the main one being what occurs in the halls of Congress. Our elected federal officials have a say in the Postal Service's operations as well as our health care and retirement benefits.

Through our political action committee (PAC), the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF), NALC has a voice in Washington; however, that voice could be much louder.

Currently, only 12 percent of NALC members give to the LCPF. With these contributions, NALC has worked to get pro-letter carrier candidates from both parties elected, participated in get-out-the-vote efforts nationwide and, most importantly, used our influence to help get postal reform enacted last year.

We have accomplished a lot with only 12 percent of members contributing. Imagine all we could achieve if every NALC member contributed even a small amount to the LCPF.

If the 93 percent of letter carriers who choose to be members of our union also decided to contribute to our PAC, NALC would undoubtedly have one of the most influential political voices on Capitol Hill. With an increase in contributors, our influence would grow and pave the way for the passage of our priority legislation.

Letter carriers know how to deliver. If we all contribute to the LCPF, we can deliver a loud and clear message to Congress: Letter carriers' voices matter and must be heard when legislation affecting our work and families is considered.

If you are already a contributor to the LCPF, I would like to thank you for your commitment to propelling NALC's legislative agenda forward.

If you haven't signed up to contribute yet, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. No matter the size of your contribution, it will make a difference for you and our brothers and sisters.

In solidarity,

Brian L. Renfro
President
